Up for sale is a beautiful imported Serbian Zastava OPAP AK47. The OPAP M70's barrel is slightly longer than 16-inches in length. The receiver is the heavier-built, RPK (light machine gun receiver) which is thicker and stouter than a standard AK receiver. The receiver is 1.5mm thick with bulged front trunnion; most AKs have a 1mm thick receiver. Also, the O-PAP has the dimpled receiver for a better fit of the 30-rd AK magazines. Very low round

Marlin 336, 30-30 hunting rifle. For collectors and Marlin fans, this rifle has the JM stamp so it is a true Marlin, not a Marlin after Remington bought the company. It also was manufactured in 1982 so it does not have the extra crossbolt safety. Condition is good with normal wear on the wood stock. Fires well. Only selling as I am switching to a .308 rifle for this season. Also have 120 rounds of 30/30 ammo that I am selling seperately for a fair (not inflated) price if interested. $500.00 OBRO 207-370-8324 Hebron, ME
